And whereas, in the reference 4th read above, The Hon’ble Tribunal, Hyderabad has observed that, the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings found that the applicant is guilty of the charge of demand acceptance of bribe from the defector complainant Venkat Rao for not sending the report against him only on the basis of his presumptions and surmises and not from the evidence what was adduced before him, and set aside the G.O.Ms.No.25, BCW(Vig.Cell) Dept., dt.26.3.2009 and directed the respondents to reinstate the applicant into service immediately with all consequential benefits.

writings that all the wardens including their superiors are engaging in nefarious activities made to the conclusion that the applicant is also involved in such activities and demanded and accepted a bribe and without any legal evidence has stated that the needle of suspicion points towards the applicant, and further observed that, the A.P.
